M-power library cum study
centre

OUR M-POWER ACHIEVER

Laxman Shivaji Kamble, a 26-year-old resident of Mankhurd, Mumbai, has overcome numerous challenges to achieve his dream of becoming a Police Sub Inspector. Coming from a modest background with his father working as an auto driver and his mother being a housewife, Laxman had to overcome financial constraints and limited resources to pursue his goals. Laxman aspired to serve the community as a police officer and decided to appear for the Maharashtra Public Service Commission (MPSC) exams.

Recognizing that success in the competitive MPSC exams requires rigorous studying and equipping himself with the necessary knowledge, he spent regular hours at the M-Power Library, dedicating 6-8 hours every day to learning and preparing for the exams. Through his relentless efforts and perseverance, Laxman successfully cleared the MPSC exams and secured the position of an MPSC Group B Associate. Today, he proudly serves as a Police Sub Inspector in Mumbai.

Laxman says, "The library's resources and facilities provided me with the necessary tools and platform to achieve my goals. I am deeply thankful to the DBM M-Power Library for supporting me in my pursuit of becoming a Police Sub Inspector."
